12/8/2023

On Friday morning for the gathering a Waldorf tradition continued as second grade performed Santa Lucia. They told a brief story - one student, one line, and they sang as they entered the MP room, and continued singing as they delivered buns that they made to all of the Orchard classrooms.

Mrs. Oi shared that next week the second grade, Madrona Tree students are going to the Carver School of Arts & Science for their Winter Faire. They invited first and second graders from local Waldorf charters to attend. They will get to make paper stars, rolled beeswax candles, clay figurines and other holiday crafts! This is a great way to connect to the larger Waldorf community, and there are even GV alumni there who help the kids!

The Bluebell class is loving 4th grade. On Thursday, they hosted an Animal Report showcase to display their hard work during their first animal block. The students were so excited to share their knowledge.

The fifth grade Magnolia class is enjoying intense stories about Ancient Greece as they are thrilled to have Ms. Hidden back from maternity leave.

Eighth grade has been working on writing children's stories to share with their buddy class. They are also planning out their eighth-grade projects. Each member of the 8th grade class has chosen a topic that is exciting and challenging for them. They are now calling upon the generous hearts of the Golden Valley community in search of mentors for these students.

Parent Circle is sponsoring a winter gathering called "Bowls for Peace" for the whole Golden Valley community at the Orchard Campus on December 16th from 5-7 PM. Please see ParentSquare flyer for more details. Orchard is also hosting A Journey Around the World Festival on February 3rd.

The Orchard faculty would like to wish members of the board a Happy Holiday and to thank you for your continued service to our schools.

Submitted by, Heather Peery, Resource Specialist/Faculty Chair

The period between the Thanksgiving break and the Holiday break is always interesting. It seems to take a day or two for the children to regain their rhythm after having the luxury to sleep-in and spend their days basking in their newfound freedom, structured as it may be. Then, it takes only about a week and a half to lose it again, as the student's sixth sense for the approaching holiday season awakens from its yearlong hibernation. However, the song remains the same and, despite the heightened energy, we strive forward in our classrooms teaching chemistry, fractions, or, in my case, Ancient Mesopotamia and Egypt.

The upper grades wing was lined in Volcanoes not too long ago as the 6th grade Cottonwood class focused on these earthly wonders in their mineralogy block. They even treated us to sweet and beautiful rendition of "I Lava You" at Friday gathering. In the lower grades, Manzanita 2nd learned about Saint Nicholas in their Saints and Heroes of Humanity block. They even had an overnight visit from good ol' Saint Nick on December 6th, his feast day, as the children received bags full of chocolate coins, mandarins, and a golden walnut. Manzanita is also preparing for Santa Lucia, which is one of the most beautiful and special mornings of the year. In two-days time, the 2nd grade class, dressed in white gowns and holding apples with candles, will process into the MP room and sing Santa Lucia to the whole school. Then, they will visit each class singing and offering gingerbread cookies. It is quite the special day.

Can you find Tinsel? Well, I have not been able to but plenty of children have. Tinsel the gnome has been a big hit, and I would like to recognize our Student Council and Ms. Parker and Ms. Moraga for their leadership. They have brought a new focus to the idea of "spirit" at Golden Valley with the Mystery Staff and the Find Tinsel adventure. They are also hard at work creating spirit days for our last week of school, such as Flip-Flop Day (teachers dress like students and students dress like teachers), Pajama Day, and many more. The Holiday Sing-a-Long is right around the corner and so too is the student store. I cannot thank the community enough for holding this incredible endeavor. The children's store is a true gift to our children, empowering them to feel the magic of giving. And, speaking of the community, I would like to travel back in time to thank Parent Circle and all the families who provided such wonderful meals for the staff during conference week. We felt so appreciated and I want to acknowledge how thankful the staff is to have such a thoughtful and caring community surrounding and supporting us. Class teachers are also thankful for our specialty and ed. support teachers who gave of their time during conference week. Through their selflessness, each teacher had at least one prep period each day during that very exhausting week.

In other news, 4th grade Poppy class went to the Nimbus Fish Hatchery last week for their animal block and travel to B-Street Theater next week. 7th grade Olive Tree is practicing for their play, 5th grade Laurel is mummifying apple slices, and the lower grades will gather in the MP Room on December 20th to watch the amazing Fratello Marionettes!

All and all, things are busy, the children are "enthusiastic", and the weather is downright cold--but all is good.

Thank you for your service and please continue to support the Renewal Room.

GOLDEN VALLEY CHARTER SCHOOLS

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR REPORT
Submitted by Caleb Buckley, EdD

December 13, 2023

K-8 Tuition for Public Waldorf Schools

This December board meeting is mostly a financial meeting with the first interim budget and the 2022-23 audit both due. Fortunately, both of our schools have a modest surplus equal to about 2% of our total revenue. If one considers all of the new programs and one-time funds that were added by the state in the last two years, we have added about $2 million of new programs since the pandemic. In fact, GVCS is now a large organization as 2 schools in 2023 than it was as 3 schools in 2020.

December marks the end of our current enrollment period and we are asking the board to close enrollment to all classes so that applications can roll into the 2024-25 school year. We will hear a presentation from our enrollment coordinator about the change in school start dates. Administration is recommending a new school calendar for 2024-25. Parents will note that the year starts later on August 15, so there are fewer days off during the year in order to end in May, 2025. This month GVCS will be formalizing the creation of two facility committees for the two schools and hold our first meetings. The focus of our engagement with the March 2024 CCSA conference will be to send the facility committees to Long Beach to become experts in the new state programs.

ON CAMPUS

Orchard School – On November 14th our second-grade teacher, Ms. Oi, helped the Orchard Campus celebrate and honor Ruby Bridges who is recognized as one of the "Shining Hearts" in the 2nd grade block. November 14th marks the day Ruby faced adversity, fear, and danger as one of a few Black girls selected to attend schools that were previously attended by only White students. Grades 1 - 8 honored and celebrated Ruby Bridges this day through our own walk and assembly. Many thanks to Ray LaPoint as our keynote speaker and the Divine Savior Church for allowing us to use their parking lot for our assembly. Please read more about this wonderful day in the Orangevale View article: Issue 23 Vol 16 12.1.2023.indd \(ovview.com\). Other groundbreaking news, Orchard received its second watershed grant. This grant of $2500 from the Sacramento County Department of Water Resources will help us continue to develop beautiful and drought-resistant spaces at Orchard. Our fifth grade Magnolia class welcomes back to Orchard Ms. Hidden! We give our gratitude to Practical Arts teacher, Ms. McCann who taught the Magnolia class while Ms. Hidden was out on maternity leave.

River School - The month the River campus launched a new school-wide behavior initiative that has, thus far, been very well received by the faculty and parent body. The impetus for this initiative was a recognition of certain behaviors across multiple grades that were consuming an inordinate of time and attention from teachers and instructional assistants, which was then creating an inequitable dynamic in the classroom and potential for learning loss. Our focus for this initiative is narrow in targeting these specific behaviors and will utilize our existing behavior policy to communicate directly with parents via our referral documentation process. After a student has earned three referrals for non-compliance or other behaviors that require a disproportionate amount of teacher/assistant/administrative attention, parents will be called to come chaperon their child for the following day in lieu of suspension, so that the child as well as their classmates can equitably access their education.

This plan is not intended to be punitive by nature and is not meant to single out any one student. This will be implemented with fidelity, equity, and positivity across the board. The students are simply telling us that they need to be held a little tighter and shown that they are truly capable of working together as a unit. And when teachers and parents show a united front, our children will take comfort knowing exactly what the expectations are and that these are unequivocal both at home and at school.

Santa Lucia is one of our favorite Golden Valley traditions and will be taking place on December 15th. In second grade, teachers introduce stories where contrasting human qualities are portrayed. They wonder at tales and legends of Saints from around the world and highlight noble human qualities.

ACCOUNTABILITY & COMPLIANCE

Meal Program: The first Wellness Committee meeting of the 23-24 school year is scheduled for December 14, 2023 at 9:30 am in The River campus library. This committee is a team of committed individuals that are vital to the developing, implementing, evaluating, and revising of the Golden Valley Wellness Policy. All community members are welcome to attend.

Title I: The annual Title I Parent Meeting at each campus is currently being scheduled at each campus. Parents of students that have been identified as target students for the 23-24 school year will receive an invitation to attend the meeting to learn about Title I as well as Golden Valley's priorities for program funds. Meeting notes and handouts will be provided to all parents if they are unable to attend the scheduled meeting at their campus.

Accountability: the 2023 California Schools Dashboard is set to go public on December 15, 2023. The site will capture the local indicators that Golden Valley reported on at the June board meeting, 2023 CAASPP performance data, chronic absenteeism data, suspensions, and teacher assignment data. The information on the site is important for the creation of the LCAP reports as well as for charter renewal.
