6. Datacate Cybersecurity Services –
Datacate leadership members Ed LaFrance and Emory Hayes presented an update on Datacate's recent cybersecurity services as a result from a recent security breach that occurred to a client unrelated to Golden Valley Charter Schools (GVCS). Datacate provided an update regarding the school's cybersecurity software. The school has historically used Trend Micro; however, the product is being phased out due to its limited ability to address evolving cybersecurity threats and changing industry requirements.
Datacate vetted, reviewed and selected Guardz, a comprehensive cybersecurity platform that provides enhanced protection, including email and spam security, dark web monitoring, identity protection, cybersecurity awareness training, 24/7 security monitoring, and automated response capabilities. The platform also includes Sentinel One, a modern endpoint detection and response (EDR) solution designed to address current cybersecurity threats.
Datacate noted that the transition to Guardz had been planned prior to the recent cybersecurity incident involving another client, which further demonstrated the limitations of the legacy Trend Micro product. Datacate was able to fully restore the affected client using existing backup systems.
The transition to Guardz is also intended to better align the school with increasingly stringent cybersecurity insurance requirements. Datacate explained that Trend Micro protections may no longer meet current cybersecurity insurance standards, while Guardz is designed to support compliance with those requirements. Overall, transitioning to Guardz will provide GVCS with a significantly higher level of protection and better alignment with the current cybersecurity threat environment. Ed and Emory answered questions surrounding faceless accounts, monitoring, phishing and security training.

The Board made note of the current monthly contract price between GVCS and Datacate being $4,100. Emory explained the discounted price of Guardz from $20 to $12/unit and that this will maintain the locked in price point moving forward including when GVCS renews their contract with Datacate. Jennifer made note that the Datacate monthly contract cost is split between both sites, as would the new fee of $1,200 equaling $600 per site.

It was moved by James Stark and seconded by Jessica Crew that the Board approve an additional monthly cybersecurity service fee associated with Datacate's cybersecurity service transition.

7. Certificate of Amendment –

Human Resources Specialist Nikki Freitas provided an update regarding CalSTRS compliance requirements affecting charter schools. Following the Board's June 3rd meeting, GVCS worked with legal counsel at YMC Legal to review the organization's governing documents and structure, including the Articles of Incorporation, Bylaws, charter language, and organizational certifications required by CalSTRS. Legal counsel prepared recommended revisions to address the applicable CalSTRS requirements. The Board was provided with an update on the progress made and the proposed governance revisions. Although CalSTRS does not specifically require Board approval of the certification form, the related governance matters were brought before the Board to ensure transparency, proper authorization, and continued compliance with CalSTRS requirements.

YMC Legal determined that amendments to GVCS Articles of Incorporation are necessary to align with CalSTRS Employer Directive 2026-01 and Form 0765. The proposed Certificate of Amendment updates the dissolution provisions to ensure that any remaining assets upon dissolution are distributed in accordance with CalSTRS requirements and applicable law. Upon Board approval, the amendment will be executed by the Board President and Corporate Secretary and filed with the California Secretary of State. Copies will subsequently be provided to the Internal Revenue Service and California Franchise Tax Board for organizational records. YMC Legal prepared the amendment and will assist with the filing process.

It was moved by Jessica Crew and seconded by Meredith Willsen that the Board approve the Certificate of Amendment of the Articles of Incorporation for purposes of compliance with CalSTRS Form 0765 and Directive.

(Ayes: 5, Noes: 0, Abstain: 0)

8. Revised GVCS Bylaws –

Nikki presented revisions to GVCS Bylaws to ensure compliance with CalSTRS Form 0765 and Directive. YMC Legal recommended revisions to GVCS Bylaws to ensure consistency with the amended Articles of Incorporation and CalSTRS requirements. Specifically, Article V, Section 1, regarding dissolution and distribution of assets, was revised to incorporate the recommended language. Upon Board approval, the revised Bylaws will become part of the corporation's official governance records and will not require filing with a governmental agency. YMC Legal also reviewed the language in the school's approved charters and determined that the existing language sufficiently addresses CalSTRS requirements by deferring to the Articles of Incorporation regarding the distribution of assets upon dissolution. Following Board approval of the amendments, administration will notify San Juan Unified School District as recommended by legal counsel.

It was moved by Meredith Willson and seconded by James Stark that the Board approve the revised Bylaws for Golden Valley Charter Schools (GVCS) to ensure compliance with CalSTRS Form 0765 and Directive

(Ayes: 5, Noes: 0, Abstain: 0)

9. CalSTRS Form 0765, GVOS –

Nikki presented CalSTRS Form 0765 for Golden Valley Charter Schools' River and Orchard campuses. The certification requires representations regarding governance, organizational structure, and ongoing compliance, including a commitment to maintain publicly available written contractual agreements by January 31, 2027.

Legal counsel advised that the forms should be executed only after the Board approves the governing document amendments and the Certificate of Amendment is filed with the California Secretary of State. Following completion of these steps, administration will execute and submit Form 0765 for each applicable school to CalSTRS.

Nikki recommended selecting Option 2 on Page 2 of Form 0765, consistent with legal counsel's guidance and Golden Valley's organizational structure and governance documentation. The Board was asked to authorize the execution and submission of the forms following the filing of the approved Certificate of Amendment.

It was moved by Ekaterina Khmelniker and seconded by James Stark that the Board approve authorizing execution of CalSTRS Form 0765 for Golden Valley Orchard School (GVOS) upon filing of the Certificate of Amendment of Articles of Incorporation.

(Ayes: 5, Noes: 0, Abstain: 0)

10. CalSTRS Form 0765, GVRS –

Nikki provided information regarding the execution of Form 0765 for GVRS.

It was moved by Ekaterina Khmelniker and seconded by Jessica Crew that the Board approve authorizing execution of CalSTRS Form 0765 for Golden Valley River School (GVRS) upon filing of the Certificate of Amendment of Articles of Incorporation.

11. Review of Comparable Compensation Data for Charter School Executive Directors/CEOs/Superintendents/Teachers –

Nikki presented an updated teacher compensation study requested by the Board at the June 3rd meeting. The study compared GVCS teacher compensation with similar charter schools using publicly available salary schedules, organizational size, enrollment, and staffing data. The study found that most comparable charter schools use step-and-column salary schedules based on experience, education, or both, with additional compensation opportunities such as advanced-degree stipends, longevity incentives, and specialized assignments. GVCS compensation structure differs by utilizing a base salary with additional compensation tied to years of service, credentials, educational attainment, and specialized certifications. The study also found that starting salaries among comparable charter schools were relatively consistent, while greater differences existed in long-term earning potential through salary progression, longevity incentives, and educational stipends. The study was provided as a current market comparison to support the Board's ongoing discussions regarding employee compensation and future budget planning.

Nikki clarified that GVCS is on the lower end for Executive Director (ED) salary when compared to charter schools due to the compensation listed reflecting the range on the compensation study that was publicly posted for the ED position in the beginning of the year.

Jessica explained that GVCS is more aligned with River Charter Schools and Sacramento Valley Charter schools in comparison especially with their teachers' salaries.

The Board would like to edit the ED range that GVCS currently has to reflect something like $145,000-$175,000. The Board discussed the purpose of establishing compensation ranges. Ranges provide a framework for evaluating an employee's position relative to the market median and can help inform appropriate pay increases based on an employee's placement within the range. Compensation ranges also provide guidance when recruiting and refilling positions by establishing a published range while allowing offers to be adjusted based on a candidate's experience and qualifications.

Meredith clarified the annual salary increase for all staff of 3% is applied at the beginning of their new contract year and explained that Jennifer would also receive the 3% annual increase. The range will be updated and the 3% will be applied regarding the new ED contract.

12. Executive Compensation –

The Board discussed Executive Director compensation. Executive Director compensation effective July 1, 2026, will be $153,963.

It was moved by Jessica Crew and seconded by Meredith Willsen that the Board approve Executive Compensation paid to the Executive Director for the 2026-2027 school year.

(Ayes: 5, Noes: 0, Abstain: 0)

13. Nutrition Services MOU –

Jennifer Hoover presented the proposed Nutrition Services Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) from San Juan Unified School District (SJUSD). This MOU is essentially the same MOU with regard to the slight increase in rates for breakfast and lunch. Jennifer explained every year the state increases the reimbursement rate. Breakfast costs have increased by twenty cents and lunch costs have increased by twenty-five cents. All other components of the proposed MOU are the same as the current.

It was moved by James Stark and seconded by Ekaterina Khmelniker that the Board approve the Nutrition Services Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) from San Juan Unified School District (SJUSD).

(Ayes: 5, Noes: 0, Abstain: 0)

14. Minutes Approval –

It was moved by Ekaterina Khmelniker and seconded by Jessica Crew that the Board approve the June 3, 2026, Regular Meeting Minutes.

(Ayes: 5, Noes: 0, Abstain: 0)

15. The Board recited the Motto of the Social Ethic.

16. Chair Katie Gerski-Keller adjourned the meeting at 6:13 p.m.

Respectfully submitted by Brittany Galles.

2024–25 School Accountability Report Card

Reported Using Data from the 2024–25 School Year

California Department of Education

Address: 6550 Filbert Ave.
Orangevale, CA , 95662-4112

Principal: Becky Page, Principal

Phone: (916) 987-1490

Grade Span: K-8

By February 1 of each year, every school in California is required by state law to publish a School Accountability Report Card (SARC). The SARC contains information about the condition and performance of each California public school. Under the Local Control Funding Formula (LCFF) all local educational agencies (LEAs) are required to prepare a Local Control and Accountability Plan (LCAP), which describes how they intend to meet annual school-specific goals for all pupils, with specific activities to address state and local priorities. Additionally, data reported in an LCAP is to be consistent with data reported in the SARC.

- For more information about SARC requirements and access to prior year reports, see the California Department of Education (CDE) SARC web page at <https://www.cde.ca.gov/ta/ac/sa/>.
- For more information about the LCFF or the LCAP, see the CDE LCFF web page at <https://www.cde.ca.gov/fg/aa/lc/>.
- For additional information about the school, parents/guardians and community members should contact the school principal or the district office.

DataQuest

DataQuest is an online data tool located on the CDE DataQuest web page at <https://dq.cde.ca.gov/dataquest/> that contains additional information about this school and comparisons of the school to the district and the county. Specifically, DataQuest is a dynamic system that provides reports for accountability (e.g., test data, enrollment, high school graduates, dropouts, course enrollments, staffing, and data regarding English learners).

California School Dashboard

The California School Dashboard (Dashboard) <https://www.caschooldashboard.org/> reflects California's new accountability and continuous improvement system and provides information about how LEAs and schools are meeting the needs of California's diverse student population. The Dashboard contains reports that display the performance of LEAs, schools, and student groups on a set of state and local measures to assist in identifying strengths, challenges, and areas in need of improvement.

Internet Access

Internet access is available at public libraries and other locations that are publicly accessible (e.g., the California State Library). Access to the Internet at libraries and public locations is generally provided on a first-come, first-served basis. Other use restrictions may include the hours of operation, the length of time that a workstation may be used (depending on availability), the types of software programs available on a workstation, and the ability to print documents.

Admission Requirements for the University of California (UC)

Admission requirements for the UC follow guidelines set forth in the Master Plan, which requires that the top one-eighth of the state's high school graduates, as well as those transfer students who have successfully completed specified college course work, be eligible for admission to the UC. These requirements are designed to ensure that all eligible students are adequately prepared for University-level work. For general admissions requirements, please visit the UC Admissions Information website at <https://admission.universityofcalifornia.edu/>.

Admission Requirements for the California State University (CSU)

Eligibility for admission to the CSU is determined by three factors: (1) Specific high school courses, (2) Grades in specified courses and test scores, and (3) Graduation from high school. Some campuses have higher standards for particular majors or students who live outside the local campus area. Because of the number of students who apply, a few campuses have higher standards (supplementary admission criteria) for all applicants. Most CSU campuses have local admission guarantee policies for students who graduate or transfer from high schools and colleges that are historically served by a CSU campus in that region. For admission, application, and fee information, see the CSU website at <https://www2.calstate.edu/>.

Quality, Currency, Availability of Textbooks and Other Instructional Materials (School Year 2025–26)

Golden Valley Orchard provides each student, including English Learners, with sufficient standards-aligned instructional materials in English/Language Arts, Mathematics, Science, and History-Social Science. Sufficient materials are available to students for use during classroom instruction and, when needed for assigned instructional purposes, for use at home. No students lack access to the instructional materials required for their courses.

Golden Valley Orchard uses a combination of Board-approved curriculum, primary-source materials, literature, teacher-developed resources, and supplemental instructional materials to implement the California academic content standards and the educational program described in the school’s Board-approved charter.

School staff review the instructional materials available to students as part of the school’s determination of sufficiency. For the 2024–25 school year, Golden Valley Orchard determined that all students, including English Learners, had sufficient instructional materials in the applicable core subject areas.

School Facility Conditions and Planned Improvements

Golden Valley Orchard operates at the Filbert Avenue campus and serves students in grades K–8. The campus includes instructional classrooms, administrative office space, student restrooms, a multipurpose room and kitchen, specialty instructional spaces, and outdoor school grounds. The facility age is 87 years but with modernizations and additions completed in subsequent years.

The school's most recent annual facilities inspection for the 2024–25 reporting period was conducted using the California Facility Inspection Tool (FIT) in August 2024.

The FIT evaluated facility conditions in the areas of systems, interior surfaces, cleanliness, electrical systems, restrooms and drinking fountains, safety, structural conditions, and external conditions. The 2024–25 FIT rated the Orchard/Filbert campus 100 percent overall and "Exemplary." All applicable categories received a 100-percent rating, and no deficiencies were identified on the inspection.

The detailed FIT inspection reflects that applicable conditions in instructional spaces, administrative areas, restrooms, multipurpose and kitchen areas, and other inspected spaces were marked "OK," indicating good repair. The FIT did not identify corrective deficiencies or a district plan necessary to remedy deficiencies at the time of the inspection.

Work Order Process and Cleaning Standards

Golden Valley Charter Schools staff monitor the condition of the Orchard campus and report identified maintenance or repair needs through the established facilities work-order process. Depending upon the nature of the work and responsibility for the facility, concerns are addressed by appropriate maintenance personnel or coordinated with San Juan Unified School District. Work is prioritized based on health and safety, urgency, operational impact, and the nature of the required repair.

Routine custodial services are provided for classrooms, restrooms, administrative areas, common spaces, and school grounds in accordance with established cleaning expectations. School administration monitors campus cleanliness and facility conditions and reports conditions requiring additional custodial or maintenance attention through the appropriate process.

Deferred Maintenance and Planned Facility Projects

At the time of the 2024–25 FIT inspection, no deficiencies requiring corrective action were identified, and the campus received an overall Exemplary rating of 100 percent.

Golden Valley Orchard operates on facilities owned by San Juan Unified School District. Larger capital and deferred-maintenance projects associated with the District-owned facility are coordinated with and planned through San Juan Unified School District. Golden Valley Charter Schools therefore distinguishes routine school-site maintenance and work orders from larger District-controlled capital projects.

Long-range facilities planning for the Orchard/Filbert campus has included roofing, HVAC, fencing/perimeter improvements, and related campus improvements. Current planning information has identified roofing work for a future construction cycle and HVAC/fencing improvements in subsequent facilities planning; however, these projects have remained subject to San Juan Unified School District planning, funding, approval, and scheduling rather than constituting deficiencies identified through the school's annual FIT inspection. Internal facilities records specifically characterize the Filbert HVAC/fencing project as being in the planning phase rather than finalized.

For the 2024–25 SARC reporting period, the school did not identify a separate Orchard deferred-maintenance expenditure arising from deficiencies on the annual FIT because the FIT identified no deficiencies requiring corrective action. Larger capital project costs are determined and budgeted through the facility owner's capital-planning process as applicable.

B. Pupil Outcomes

State Priority: Pupil Achievement

The SARC provides the following information relevant to the State priority: Pupil Achievement (Priority 4):

- Statewide assessments (i.e., California Assessment of Student Performance and Progress [CAASPP] System includes assessments for English language arts/literacy [ELA], mathematics, and science for students in the general education population and the California Alternate Assessment [CAA]. Only eligible students may participate in the administration of the CAA. CAA items are aligned with alternate achievement standards, which are linked with the Common Core Standards [CCSS] or California Next Generation Science Standards [CA NGSS] for students with the most significant cognitive disabilities).

The CAASPP System encompasses the following assessments and student participation requirements:

1. Smarter Balanced Summative Assessments and CAA for ELA in grades three through eight and grade eleven.
 2. Smarter Balanced Summative Assessments and CAA for mathematics in grades three through eight and grade eleven.
 3. California Science Test (CAST) and CAA for Science in grades five, eight, and once in high school (i.e., grade ten, eleven, or twelve).
- College and Career Ready: The percentage of students who have successfully completed courses that satisfy the requirements for entrance to the University of California and the California State University, or career technical education sequences or programs of study.

School Safety Plan (School Year 2025–26)

GVOS complies with Education Code Section 47605(c)(5)(F)(ii). The School Safety Plan is drafted specifically to the needs of the facility in conjunction with law enforcement and the Fire Marshal. Staff receive training in emergency response, including appropriate “first responder” training or its equivalent.

Disaster procedures included in the School Safety Plan address and include adaptations for students for students with disabilities. To the extent an employee, parent/guardian, educational rights holder, or student brings concerns regarding the procedures to the School Leader and, if there is merit to the concern, the principal shall direct the School Safety Plan to be modified accordingly.

The LEA Safety Plan will be reviewed and approved annually at a scheduled Board of Trustees meeting. The plan is reviewed by leadership and staff every January or February.

August 13, 2026

At our first faculty pre-service meeting, Jennifer Hoover offered us the image of the circle as a guiding picture for our work this year. The circle is one of humanity's oldest forms. It carries within it images of wholeness, protection, belonging, continuity, and return. There is no beginning or end, and each point has a place within the whole.

As teachers, we reflected on the circles we create around children. Children are nourished not only by what we teach them, but also by the forms we create around them—the rhythms they can depend upon, the relationships that surround them, the expectations that remain steady, and the community in which they know they belong. Our work as the adults in this community is to create a living circle in which we hold the children of our school. When the adults surrounding a child work with trust, consistency, warmth, and a shared sense of purpose, the child can feel it. Children know when the circle around them is steady. They know when they are held. And from that feeling of security and belonging, they are free to learn, explore, take risks, make mistakes, and grow.

This image feels especially meaningful as we begin another school year together, particularly as we welcome many new faculty members into our community. Each has brought such wonderful energy, enthusiasm, and care to our school. We each have our own place within the whole—teachers, parents, administrators, staff members, students, and community members—and the strength of the circle comes from each of us understanding and tending to our place within it.

There was a wonderful feeling among the faculty during our days of pre-service together. Our meetings felt positive, purposeful, and full of life. There was genuine happiness in being together again, welcoming new colleagues, sharing ideas, preparing our spaces, and looking ahead to the year before us. So much of what creates the first day of school happens long before a child walks through the door. There is something profoundly hopeful about preparing a classroom for our students. Lessons are imagined, chalkboards are carefully drawn, desks are arranged, and materials are placed with love and intention. We, as teachers, meditate deeply on the children who we are preparing to receive in our care. Teachers delighted in the familiar scent of freshly opened beeswax crayons and the sight of beautifully sharpened Lyra colored pencils waiting to be put into children's hands.

The excitement and warmth we had felt during pre-service seemed to carry directly into the first day of school. Classrooms that had been quiet all summer were suddenly filled again with voices, movement, laughter, stories, drawing, singing, and friendship. The school felt alive again. Most beautifully, the students seemed to feel that energy as well. Lila in seventh grade shared, "The positive energy was amazing. We are so happy to be back together." Ellie in third grade reflected, "It was a great first day of school. My favorite part was probably drawing with my class. It felt so fun to come back and see my friends again." Their joy in returning felt like a beautiful affirmation of the community we are continually working to create around them.

Perhaps nowhere was the image of the circle more visible than at our Rose Ceremony. The amphitheater seemed fuller than ever, with students, teachers, parents, siblings, and friends gathered together to witness one of the most beautiful traditions of Waldorf education.

Our oldest students stood ready to welcome our youngest children. One by one, the first graders stepped forward to receive a rose from an eighth grader. For the youngest children, it marked a beginning. For the eighth graders, it offered a glimpse backward. The students welcoming those little first graders were once the children taking those same small steps forward. They, too, once received a rose. They, too, once stood at the beginning of this journey, not yet knowing all of the stories, friendships, challenges, discoveries, performances, festivals, lessons, and memories that would fill the years ahead.

This year, our eighth-grade families added another beautiful layer to the morning. Before the Rose Ceremony began, the eighth graders and their parents gathered together for a special moment of their own. Each parent brought an item from their child's early years and presented it to them. Before asking these students to step forward as the leaders and oldest children of our school, we first gave them a moment to look backward and to remember the small child they once were. A familiar childhood object placed back into their hands became a bridge between who they had been and who they are becoming. The students, in turn, presented their parents with a rose. It was a beautiful exchange: parents returning a small piece of childhood to their children, and children offering something back to the people who have walked beside them throughout their journey. And then, only a short while later, those same eighth graders stepped forward to offer roses to our first graders.

As we move forward from these first days, that circle feels like an especially meaningful picture to carry with us. It can remind us that the work of a school is not held by any one person. It is created through hundreds of small acts of steadiness, care, trust, preparation, and reverence.

There is so much to feel hopeful about as we begin this school year. The warmth and enthusiasm of our faculty, the energy brought by our new colleagues, the joy of our students, the beauty of our traditions, and the fullness of our community all made these opening days feel especially meaningful. May we continue to tend the circle we have created together—to strengthen it through trust, rhythm, warmth, and consistency; to recognize the important place each person holds within it; and, above all, to make it a circle in which every child feels known, welcomed, and held.

River School

River school teachers and staff have been busily readying our classes since we were not able to come in over the summer due to the roof construction happening. We are welcoming a new first grade teacher, music teacher, art teacher, practical arts teacher and games teacher this year. We are all looking forward to our annual traditions with the rose ceremony on the first day and festivals starting back like the festival of light. We will gather with our community for Chalk it up and Eagle Chase. We are all ready to get back into our routines and schedules.

Welcome to a New School Year

As we begin the 2026-2027 school year, I am eternally grateful for the dedication of our teachers, staff, administrators, families, and board members who make our Golden Valley Charter School Community possible. The start of a school year is always a time of renewal. I want to remind our school community of the importance of maintaining clear, direct, and respectful communication with school leadership. When questions, concerns, or ideas arise, the best first step is to communicate directly with the person or school leader closest to the issue.

This allows concerns to be understood in context, allows those responsible for the day-to-day operations to respond, and helps prevent misunderstandings from growing unnecessarily. Our school leadership team works hard to support students, families, and staff. Holding space for direct communication allows them to address concerns thoughtfully and efficiently while maintaining appropriate confidentiality and professional boundaries.

This new start to the school year allows the Board of Trustees to step back, reflect on our responsibilities, and recommit ourselves to the mission and long-term health of our schools. Our continued work as a board is grounded in our shared commitment to providing an excellent, safe, and developmentally appropriate Waldorf education while fulfilling our responsibilities as a public charter school.

The Board of Trustees Role

As we begin the year, I encourage the board to remain focused on governance, stewardship, and strategic leadership. Our responsibilities include:

- Maintaining transparent and clear alignment with the school's charter, mission, and educational programs.
- Hold thoughtful oversight of financial sustainability and responsibility for resource allocation.
- Supporting strong school leadership while maintaining appropriate board-level accountability.
- Enforce compliance with applicable charter-school requirements and board policies.
- Monitoring academic, operational, and organizational goals.
- Building relationships among the board, school leadership, staff, and broader community.
- Keeping students' overall well-being and educational quality at the center of our decisions.

A healthy board does not seek to manage the daily operations of the school; rather, we establish direction, ask important questions, monitor results, and support our school leadership in carrying out the mission.

Waldorf Education and Our Mission

Our Waldorf approach gives our school a distinctive educational identity. This includes honoring the development needs of students, supporting teachers in their craft, cultivating meaningful relationships, integrating academic learning with the arts and practical experiences, and creating a school environment in which all students can develop curiosity, confidence, creativity, and a sense of responsibility. As a public charter school, we also have an important responsibility to communicate clearly how our Waldorf educational model serves students and families while meeting our public obligations and accountability requirements.

Building a Strong School Community

One of our greatest opportunities this year is to strengthen trust and communication throughout the school community. Families, staff, and board members bring different perspectives and responsibilities, but we share a common purpose: creating the best possible educational environment for our students. I encourage all members of this school community to approach tough questions with curiosity rather than defensiveness, to listen with intent to all differing perspectives, and to make decisions based on our mission, evidence, policy, and the long-term interest of our school community.

Looking Ahead Together

As we look toward the important work of rechartering, this is a meaningful time to reflect on where we have been, where we are today, and the future we are building together. Our charter renewal is an opportunity to demonstrate the strength of our school, the impact of our Waldorf educational approach, and our commitment to serving students and families with excellence. This work ahead will require focus, collaboration, transparency, and a shared commitment to our mission. I am confident that when we work together, we can meet at this moment with both humility and confidence.

Thank you for the time, care, and dedication all members of our community bring to our school. May this year be one of growth, strong relationships, and renewed purposes as we continue the important work of nurturing a thriving Waldorf education and securing a strong future for our school for generations to come.

Respectfully,

THE CHARTER MANAGEMENT OFFICE

August marks the beginning of a new school year for Golden Valley Charter Schools, and our campuses are once again filled with the energy of students, faculty, and staff returning to the important work of teaching and learning.

This year, we welcomed many new classroom and specialty teachers across GVCS. In preparation for their arrival, the Central Office and school leadership teams spent the week prior to the start of school providing intensive onboarding for all new hires. This time was designed to introduce new employees to Golden Valley's culture, expectations, systems, and educational approach while also helping them build relationships with staff and school leaders.

All faculty and staff then came together for three days of preservice before students returned. As part of this work, CharterSafe provided training focused on professional boundaries and the prevention and recognition of childhood abuse. Faculty continued this important conversation throughout preservice, spending additional time examining boundaries, confidentiality, and the agreements that support healthy professional relationships and a strong school community.

The remainder of preservice was spent at each school site, where faculty and staff worked together to prepare classrooms, programs, schedules, and shared spaces for the new school year. These days of collaboration are especially valuable as each school establishes its rhythms and priorities for the year ahead.

Over the summer, the River School also received a significant facility improvement with the installation of a new roof. This will greatly improve the long-term condition and protection of the campus. The construction schedule, however, meant that teachers were unable to access the campus as early as usual to prepare their classrooms. We are especially appreciative of the River faculty and staff for their flexibility, patience, and teamwork as they prepared for opening under a compressed timeline.

As we begin the school year, I am grateful for the considerable work that happens behind the scenes to make a successful opening possible. Our teachers, staff, school leaders, and Central Office team have approached the start of the year with professionalism, collaboration, and a shared commitment to creating welcoming and supportive learning environments for our students.

We look forward to a strong year ahead.

ORCHARD -

The start of the 2026-2027 school year has been both exciting and successful as we welcomed students, staff, and families back to campus. Our opening days focused on establishing positive relationships, creating a strong sense of belonging, and setting clear expectations for learning and behavior. Staff members returned energized and committed to supporting student success, and new team members participated in onboarding activities to help ensure a smooth transition into our school community. Enrollment remains steady, and classrooms were thoughtfully prepared to provide engaging and developmentally appropriate learning environments from the first day of school.

These first few days of school, teachers have focused on building classroom routines, developing meaningful relationships with students, and collaborating with colleagues to plan high-quality instruction aligned with Waldorf educational practices and California state standards. Professional learning opportunities have provided faculty and staff with training and collaborative experiences designed to strengthen instructional practices, support student well-being, and promote success throughout the school year. These efforts lay the foundation for a rich and engaging educational experience that supports the growth of the whole child.

Family and community partnerships continue to be a priority as we work together to create a safe, supportive, and welcoming environment for all students. We look forward to Back-to-School Night, which will provide families with an opportunity to connect with teachers, learn about classroom expectations, and gain insight into the year ahead. In addition, school safety procedures, emergency protocols, and campus operations have been reviewed with staff to ensure a secure learning environment. As we begin the year, our focus remains on fostering strong attendance, maintaining high expectations for learning, strengthening school connectedness, and helping every student thrive. We are grateful for the support of our families, staff, and community and look forward to a productive and successful school year.

RIVER –

Welcome back to a new school year! Whether you are joining our community for the very first time or returning for another year of learning together, welcome! We are so excited to begin this new journey with each of you.

To our new families, thank you for entrusting us with your children. We know that joining a new school community is both exciting and, at times, a little uncertain. Please know that you are now part of a community that values meaningful relationships, joyful learning, and the growth of every child. We hope you quickly feel the warmth, kindness, and sense of belonging that make Golden Valley River School such a special place.

To our returning families, welcome back home. There is something magical about seeing familiar faces return to campus after a summer apart. We look forward to hearing about your adventures, celebrating your growth, and continuing the relationships that make our school feel like an extended family.

As we begin this school year, there are two themes that will guide much of our work together.

The first is a familiar one that we hope every student carries with them both in and out of the classroom: "We Can Do Hard Things." Learning is meant to stretch us. Whether a student is tackling a difficult math problem, persevering through a challenging artistic project, navigating a friendship, or simply learning something new, growth often comes through moments that feel difficult. Rather than avoiding those moments, we want our students to recognize them as opportunities to build resilience, confidence, and character. Every challenge overcome becomes evidence that they are capable of more than they once believed.

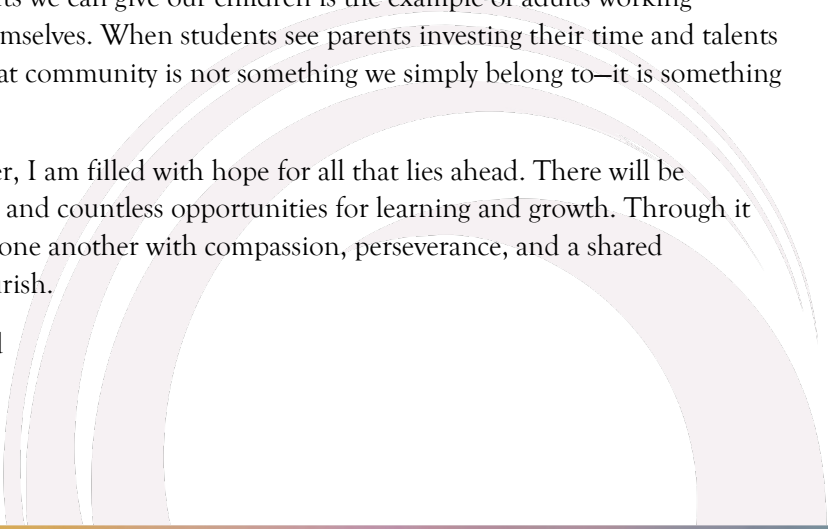

Our hope is that this simple phrase becomes part of our students' inner dialogue. When something feels difficult, instead of saying, "I can't," we want them to remember: We can do hard things.

Our other focus extends to our families and the culture we continue to build together. A thriving school is never created by teachers alone. It is built through countless acts of generosity, volunteerism, encouragement, and shared purpose. This year, we invite every family to help strengthen a community rooted in service.

Service looks different for everyone. It may mean volunteering in a classroom, helping at a festival, serving on a committee, sharing a professional skill, preparing materials for teachers, or simply offering a helping hand to another family. Every contribution—large or small—helps create the vibrant school community our children deserve. One of the greatest gifts we can give our children is the example of adults working together for something greater than themselves. When students see parents investing their time and talents into the life of the school, they learn that community is not something we simply belong to—it is something we actively build.

As we open another school year together, I am filled with hope for all that lies ahead. There will be moments of joy, moments of challenge, and countless opportunities for learning and growth. Through it all, I know we will continue to support one another with compassion, perseverance, and a shared commitment to helping every child flourish.

Here's to a wonderful school year ahead
